

Mulheres em
Movimento

Building Movements

RESULT

Building Movements 2023

Result of the Selection Building Movements 2023

→ 10.07.2023

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
Abayomi Juristas Negras @abayomijuristasnegras The organization offers preparatory courses employing anti-racist methodology to Black women with Law degrees who are in situations of social vulnerability. The objective is to provide these women with access to public contests (civil service exams) and exams for the Brazilian Bar Association. The group has attained approval rates of 80% and it seeks to enable Black anti-racist women lawyers to occupy increasingly more decision-making spaces.	Recife, PE	R$45.000,00
ABRAI - Associação Brasileira Intersexo @abraintersexo ABRAI arose from the need to bring together activists who are working to promote the physical and psychological integrity of intersex people, given the socio-economic invisibility and situations of vulnerability this population finds itself in. As one of its objectives, the association seeks to promote the human rights of intersex people in Brazil through awareness efforts at all levels of society, especially within medical, political, legal, and educational institutions.	São Paulo, SP	R$45.000,00
AFLOREM - Associação Florianópolis e Região de Esclerose Múltipla @aflorem The association was created in 2004 with the objective of guiding, supporting and sheltering patients and family members of people with multiple sclerosis, an autoimmune disease that is more prevalent in women. The group also works to guarantee rights and publicize information about the cause, and to promote accessibility and acceptance of treatment. AFLOREM offers support based on the values of friendship and encourages the pursuit for better conditions of life.	Florianópolis, SC	R$40.000,00

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
AICA - Arco Íris do Caeté @coletivoaica The organization gathers LGBTIA+ people to discuss gender relations and provide them with information about the rights that are guaranteed to this population. Through cyber-activism, it seeks to disseminate this information and denounce violations of rights registered in the city of Bragança-PA, demanding respect for diversity. The idea is to make the collective's social networks a channel for information and safe communication for the LGBTIA+ population in the municipality.	Bragança, PA	R$45.000,00
Aldeia Forte Created in 2004, the group arose from the need to confront all types of violence against Potiguara women and work to improve their living conditions. In addition to working to strengthen Indigenous culture, Aldeia Forte fights for the territory and gets women directly involved in the struggle to guarantee rights such as health, education and a decent life for the Potiguara people.	Baía da Traição, PB	R$45.000,00
Ame Cannabis Cariri/ Movimento Mães Cannabica @amecannabiscariri The project arose to battle the stigmatization generated by the illegal status of the medicinal and preventative use of cannabis in Brazil. The idea is to generate content related to the therapeutic benefits of the substance and in this way empower women and mothers of children who depend on medicines produced with cannabis. The group seeks to orient and train patients and caretakers, so that, with this knowledge, they may search for legal means to guarantee treatment.	Juazeiro do Norte, CE	R$35.000,00
AMIAM - Associação de Mulheres Indígenas da Aldeia Muruary @aldeiamuruary The association was created to promote the rights of Indigenous women in the village of Muruary, who are the majority in the community. The fight against gender discrimination and violence, the defense of the right to territory, and the preservation of village culture are some of the association's objectives, in addition to strengthening the political and economic participation of Indigenous women in society.	Santarém, PA	R$45.000,00

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
AMIMA - Articulação das Mulheres Indígenas do Maranhão @amima.ofc The articulation arose to meet the need of the Indigenous women of Maranhão to feel that they are duly represented in decision-making spaces. The objective is to bring the women into contact with political leaders and enable them to become involved in the debate over important issues, such as the defense of territory, overcoming inequalities and the promotion of the rights of Indigenous peoples.	Santa Inês, MA	R$45.000,00
Articulação de Mulheres Negras no Quilombo Engenho da Ponte @quilomboarticularmulheres The organization brings together Black women fishermen, shell fishers, miners, artisans, freelancers, and solo mothers from the Recôncavo Baiano. The objective is to increase awareness among these women about their own rights and combat the invisibility of traditional peoples as a way to strengthen the quilombola ¹ identity. Through the practice of cooperativism and associativism, the group also provides political and economic support to the quilombola women.	Cachoeira, BA	R$45.000,00
Articulação e Movimento para Travestis e Transexuais de Pernambuco - AMOTRANS-PE @amotrans.pe AMOTRANS was created in 2008 with the objective of guaranteeing citizenship and fighting for human rights for the travestis and transexuais of Pernambuco. In 2023, the articulation founded AMOLESB – a center within AMOTRANS that works with lesbian and bisexual women in the construction of a range of state policies to guarantee dignity, security, and well-being for the LBT community.	Recife, PE	R$45.000,00
Associação Comunitária Rádio Lençóis @avantelencoisbahia The group was created in 1995, with the objective of guaranteeing social rights for the population of the city Lençóis, Bahia. The association is responsible for the implementation of a community library and radio station, which are still operating today, and it also used to produce a free newspaper. Educational workshops and professional training courses are offered to guarantee digital inclusion of children, adolescents, youths, and adults.	Lençóis, BA	R$45.000,00

¹ Quilombola is a name given to people living in small communities that were established by runaway slaves and continue to be occupied by their descendants.

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
Associação de Cooperação das Comunidades Quilombolas de Pernambuco - QUILOMBOS @quilombosdepernambuco The association was established in 2019 to support the organization State Coordination for Articulation with Quilombola Communities in Pernambuco in the area of education. Its objectives include the search for implementing education that is specific to and intercultural for quilombola communities, and to fight for territory and for the rights of quilombola children, adolescents, women, and the elderly. Its method of operation employs communication as an instrument for community integration and to fight for rights.	Garanhuns, PE	R$45.000,00
Associação de Doulas da Paraíba @adpbdoulas The group was created with the objective of combating violence and obstetric racism, and to fight for sexual and reproductive justice. The association offers public courses to train midwives and seeks to strengthen, legitimize, and democratize their participation in public policy making, volunteer work with SUS (Brazilian Public Health System), social control, and in dialogues with legislative and judicial authorities.	João Pessoa, PB	R$43.000,00
Associação de Mulheres Imigrantes Luz e Vida facebook.com/ASC.MULHERESLUZEVIDA The association brings together immigrant women from Bolivia, Peru, Paraguay, and Venezuela who work as seamstresses in the metropolitan area of São Paulo. The group was created in 2014 to disseminate information on the rights of immigrants and strengthen these women, assisting them to access documentation, to fight for better working conditions, and to combat gender violence.	São Paulo, SP	R$45.000,00
Associação de Mulheres Produtoras dos Assentamentos Santo Onofre e Santa Tereza 1 associacaomulheresunidas.blogspot.com The organization was created in 2007 given the need for the community to organize in order to seek means for income generation and, thus, create better living conditions for the families in the settlements. The women specialize in the confection of products made from capim dourado and other raw materials, such as leather and bio-jewels. The items include purses and decorative pieces that are offered in domestic craft and family agriculture fairs.	Ponte Alta do Tocantins, TO	R$45.000,00

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
Associação de Mulheres Trabalhadoras Rurais de Santarém - AMTR @amtrstm The Association grew out of the Laborers and Rural Workers' Union of Santarém in an effort to strengthen and increase the visibility and struggles of women who work in rural areas. Among its objectives, the group seeks to promote the political, social, and economic independence of rural women workers, supporting initiatives and collective articulation from the viewpoint of protection and advancement of rights, with an emphasis on social justice, viable economics and environmental sustainability.	Santarém, PA	R$45.000,00
Associação de Parteiras Tradicionais da Floresta de Marechal Thaumaturgo @parteirasdafloresta The group was created in 1992 to unite women in the riverside communities of the hydrographic basin of the Juruá River, a region that is only accessible by river or by air taxi. Currently, 64 midwives are active with support from the association, and they are the only form of emergency assistance available to the women of the communities.	Marechal Thaumartugo, AC	R$45.000,00
Associação de Prostitutas do Estado do Piauí - APROSPI @aprospiaui The association was created in 2008 with the objective of giving support to sex workers, especially Blacks and those living in the rural outskirts in situations of vulnerability. Initially focusing on these women's health issues, APROSPI also currently works on petitioning public authorities for the enactment of policies addressing sex workers in the state.	Teresina, PI	R$45.000,00
Associação de Travestis e Transexuais Potiguaras na Ação pela Coerência no Rio Grande do Norte - ATTRANS PARÊNCIA-RN @attransparenciarn The institution was created for the purpose of supporting travestis , trans women and men, through actions directed at public authorities calling for the enactment of policies addressing this population. The association seeks improvements in health assistance, offers support for the protection of rights, such as the right to name changes, and offers shelter to the LGBTI community in the state.	Natal, RN	R$45.000,00

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
Associação de Travestis, Transexuais e Transgêneros de Goiás @astralgoiasong The association's mission is to contribute to the improvement of quality of life, the promotion of health, reduction of violence, and defense of rights of female travestis and transsexuals in the state of Goiás. It works in the areas of health, HIV/AIDS, human rights and combating human trafficking, in addition to supporting the development of policies of inclusion for the LGBT population, especially for trans people.	Goiânia, GO	R$45.000,00
Associação dos Remanescentes do Quilombo Maria Joaquina @quilombomariajoaquina Founded in 2011, the objective of the association is to represent the interests of the quilombola community, defending the right to title to lands, identity, and community development. The quilombo Maria Joaquina was established near the port for slave ships at Ponta do Pai Vitório, in the city of Armação dos Búzios, Rio de Janeiro, and boasts strong leadership from women in the everyday construction of community relations and the formation of leaders. They are the ones who are taking charge of agricultural production, the process of organization, and taking care of cultural knowledge.	Cabo Frio, RJ	R$45.000,00
Associação dos Trabalhadores e Trabalhadoras Rurais Quilombolas da Comunidade Marinheiro The association was created in 1997 for the purpose of assuring the constitutional right to property in quilombola lands. Currently, for the first time since its foundation, the directors of the organization's council are all women. This leading role became possible after working to strengthen these quilombola women after they felt the need to occupy and be represented in decision-making.	Piripiri, PI	R$45.000,00
Associação Estadual das Etnias Ciganas de Mato Grosso - AECC-MT @aeecmt The organization acts as a storage house of knowledge and philosophies of Roma people through the registering and publicizing of culture, and also in the defense of rights and inclusion of citizens into the community. Among its objectives, the association seeks to strengthen and maintain Romani identities, promote the defense of human rights, as well as the social and material and immaterial property rights of Roma people. One of its lines of action is the valorization of Romani art as a way to combat prejudice and stereotypes.	Cuiabá, MT	R$45.000,00

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
Associação Mulheres na Comunicação @mulheresnacomunicacao Created in 2004, the organization works in the area of popular and democratic communication, with an emphasis on subjects related to human rights, especially the rights of women. The collective produces radio programs that focus on gender issues, disseminating information about social rights, and it also holds workshops, training a wide range of segments within the social movement to use tools of communication.	Goiânia, GO	R$27.000,00
Associação Paraguaçu de Mulheres Indígenas The organization was created to stimulate and support Indigenous women in different territories for the purpose of ensuring their rights and developing actions aimed at environmental preservation, such as the recuperation of degraded areas, reforestation projects, and actions involving environmental education. The group also promotes sustainable human development of Indigenous populations, spreading their culture and traditional knowledge.	Pau Brasil, BA	R$45.000,00
ASSOTRAM - Associação de Travestis, Transexuais e Transgêneros do Estado do Amazonas @assotram Founded in 2017, the association carries out human rights advocacy for the LGBTI+ population. The organization also offers direct services to this community, such as campaigns for alteration of name and gender, and monitoring of violations of the rights of trans people and travesti sex workers.	Manaus, AM	R$45.000,00
Bordadeiras da Coroa facebook.com/bordadeirasdacoroa The collective, created in 2005, is made up of women embroiderers, neighbors, who are responsible for the financial support of their families. They decided to join forces around an activity that could generate income and began to collectively organize entrepreneurial projects. The group also discusses ways to combat gender violence, racism, and poverty, in addition to climate questions and environmental preservation.	Rio de Janeiro, RJ	R$45.000,00

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
Coletiva Cabras @coletivacabras The group arose in 2020 during the Covid-19 pandemic due to the urgency of the need to offer support to Black women and those in remote areas of the region who live in situations of economic and social vulnerability. The collective acts to confront gender violence and to defend fishing territory, supporting cis and trans women, travesties , and unemployed mothers as well as victims of domestic violence. The group also carries out a literacy and political education project with the shell fishers in the community.	Recife, PE	R$45.000,00
Coletiva das Mulheres Nagô do Vale do Mamanguapoe The group arose in 2020 for the purpose of combating all forms of religious racism, especially violence that affects women who are leaders of African and Amerindian religions. Among their forms of operation, the collective promotes actions of prevention and awareness through dialogue with society and also in the academic sphere.	Itapororoca, PB	R$45.000,00
Coletivo Coisa de Puta+ @coletivocoisadeputa The collective was created to meet the demands of sex workers living and surviving with HIV/AIDS in the state of Pará. The aim of the organization is to restore the citizenship of these women, break down stigmas, combat prejudice, and facilitate forms of access and adhesion to treatment of the disease.	Belém, PA	R$45.000,00
Coletivo de Familiares e Amigos de Presos e Presas do Amazonas @coletivofapam The group offers social and legal support to family members, specifically mothers, partners, and children of incarcerated people. Some of the organization's objectives include the goal of strengthening these women, in addition to focusing on their well-being and guaranteeing their rights to egress, and preventing torture and inhuman treatment in penal institutions, combating penal selectivity, racism, and misogyny.	Manaus, AM	R$45.000,00

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
Coletivo de Mulheres Indígenas As Karuana @as_karuana The collective is made up of Indigenous women from different ethnic groups in the region of Baixo-Tapajós, who act in defense of the forest, the rivers, and the rights of native populations. The group operates through projects and socio-environmental actions, using the art of music as an instrument in the fight and strategy for occupying spaces and building up leadership among Indigenous women.	Santarém, PA	R$45.000,00
Coletivo Ponta de Lança @coletivopontadelanca The group is made up of Black women residing in the outlying neighborhoods surrounding Manaus who were able to attain access to public universities through affirmative action policies. Seeking to promote spaces where the outlying Amazonian populations will be heard and give visibility to their narratives, the collective uses popular means of communication and documental audiovisual production as an instrument to register and understand the forms of violence that impacts the lives of these populations.	Manaus, AM	R$45.000,00
Coletivo Tumajamace @t.saojorge.tumajamace The collective brings together leaders and women that belong to the traditional community of Ambude/Alegria-Maracanã, a sacred space for followers of traditional African religions who live in the region. The group's objective is to combat religious racism, gender discrimination, and homophobia, promoting actions and projects that make it possible for the women to attain financial autonomy.	São Luís, MA	R$45.000,00
Coopcarmo (Cooperativa Mista de Coleta Seletiva) - As Carolinas de Jacutinga @coopcarmo Coopcarmo is a cooperative that was created in 1993 from the work of a group of women in situations of extreme social vulnerability in Baixada Fluminense. They initially came together to receive food donated by one of the churches in the region. Informed of the possibilities for income generation with recycling, they organized a cooperative to develop activities in this area. Currently, they work on combating poverty and environmental degradation in the region.	Mesquita, RJ	R$45.000,00

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
Coordenação de Mulheres da Associação Xavante Warã (em parceria com o Centro de Trabalho Indigenista) @associacao_wara The organization brings together Indigenous women of the Xavante Warã ethnic group to articulate actions in the defense of the territory and preservation of the Cerrado . Issues that affect the community, such as nutritional security, health, and sexual and domestic violence, are also among the subjects that the group focuses on.	Primavera do Leste, MT	R$45.000,00
Coordenação de Mulheres Quilombolas do Estado de Minas Gerais (Mariana Crioula) @marianacrioulamg The group was created to address the needs identified by the quilombola women who fight in defense of their territories. The coordination is based upon a few main axes such as the struggle against domestic and racial violence, the promotion of the quilombola health, the overcoming of hunger, and the promotion of racial equity. The group also promotes training to enable more quilombola women to gain access to their rights.	Belo Horizonte, MG	R$45.000,00
Filhas do Mangue @filhasdomangue The collective was born of the necessity for local Black female leadership, in addition to the need for awareness regarding environmental preservation. The group operates through the promotion of actions that create jobs and generate income through mangrove cuisine, producing traditional dishes with shellfish and greens harvested in the community. In this manner, the collective valorizes the culture of the mangrove and strengthens the women's identities.	São Cristóvão, SE	R$45.000,00
Fórum Nacional de Mulheres Negras Bahia @fnmnegras.ba The Forum was created in 2001 due to the need for a space for the exchange of information, training, interlocution, and autonomy so that the Black women's movement could structure effective measures to combat racism. Currently, it brings together Black women activists involved in Black feminism, with a focus on the promotion of health and the education of the Black population.	Salvador, BA	R$45.000,00

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
Grupo Afirmativo de Mulheres Independentes - GAMI @gamimulheres The organization was created in 2003 with the objective of supporting lesbian women in the region through political education. Operation is focused on combating violations of the rights of women and gender violence. The group develops actions focused on the construction of political and feminist agendas that are specific to strengthening LBT women.	Natal, RN	R$45.000,00
Grupo Mulheres Yepondá facebook.com/Grupoyeponda Created in 2007 in the face of the need to guarantee greater participation of women as citizens, the group acts to fight gender violence, with a focus on female empowerment. Through activities that stimulate entrepreneurship and the formation of feminist leaders, the organization combats domestic violence as well as racism, guaranteeing the promotion of an anti-racist education.	São João de Meriti, RJ	R$45.000,00
Guerreiras Curí-Croá @guerreiras_curi_croa The collective arose with the objective of supporting the women of the Indigenous village of Jeripankó, increasing their participation in the decision-making spaces and working toward environmental sustainability with a view toward climate justice. The group also performs recovery of memories and stories from families in the community, creating an environment for the exchange of practical knowledge to make them aware of the importance of personal experiences and the balance between the environment and the village's way of life.	Pariconha, AL	R$45.000,00
Instituto Coletivo Preta Velha @coletivopretavelha Founded in 2017, the institute arose from the need, identified by women who were local leaders, to fill the hole left by the absence of the public sector that resulted in a lack of childcare facilities, schools, housing, and basic sanitation, in addition to nutritional insecurity in the region. The organization's objectives include the search for equality and diversity, as well as combating racism, machismo, and LGBTQIA+phobia through the projects they develop.	Porto Alegre, RS	R$45.000,00

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
Instituto Nacional de Mulheres Redesignadas @inamur_br The institute initiated its activities in 2015 to bring together reassigned women from all over the country to debate the demands of this population. In addition to legal assistance, the organization also functions as a network for the exchange of experiences and a support place for trans women.	Bonfinópolis, GO	R$45.000,00
Instituto Socioambiental Cultural Artístico de Direito, Educação e Economia - ISACADEE - Marcionila Mendes de Almeida @Isacadee2023 The institute brings together women who have been released from the prison system and find it hard to have their rights guaranteed after completing their prison time. The group promotes and supports educational activities in economics and financial education, as well as informative lectures on the rights of women.	Belém, PA	R$45.000,00
LBL - Liga Brasileira de Lésbicas @ligabrasileiradelesbicas The group was created due to the need identified by lesbian women to have an autonomous, non-institutional space for political articulation. Among its objectives, the league fights for a just and egalitarian society based on anticapitalistic and anti-racist principles, in the fight against LGBTI-phobia and all forms of oppression.	Curitiba, PR	R$45.000,00
LGBT+Movimento @lgbtmaismovimento The movement began its activities in 2017 through the articulation of friendly networks for facilitating integration, protection, and expression for migrant and refugee LGTBTTQIA+ people. The group identified the need for mobilization in the face of the lack of data in regard to this community, which is excluded from public policies. Their work is done through offering comfort, legal support, promotion of health, and political lobbying with public agencies.	Rio de Janeiro, RJ	R$45.000,00

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
Movimento Brasileiro de Mulheres Cegas e com Baixa Visão @mbmc.official Created in 2015, the movement brings together women who have visual disabilities, primarily from the northeast of the country, who feel the need for more concrete action in the construction of means for their political and social inclusion. The movement works promoting welcoming spaces for discussion, as well as formative actions on subjects related to the daily lives of women with visual disabilities, working at the intersectionality of gender, race, and ethnicity.	Fortaleza, CE	R$45.000,00
Movimento das Mulheres Negras da Floresta - Dandara @mmnfdandara The group initiated its activities in 1997 after seeing the need to discuss, reflect, study, and fight racism in the communities on the outskirts of Manaus. The movement strengthens women by promoting actions and campaigns to combat racism and debating related subjects such as poverty, domestic violence, and sexual violence.	Manaus, AM	R$45.000,00
Movimento Feminista de Mulheres e Meninas com Deficiência Inclusivass @inclusivassfeminista It was created in 2014 in Rio Grande do Sul by a group of women with disabilities to work from the perspective of women and girls with disabilities in the defense of their citizenship and human rights. The movement acts through the promotion of activities and projects on issues related to gender, disabilities, and feminism, always articulating with women's movements.	Porto Alegre, RS	R$45.000,00
Movimento Nacional das Cidadãs Posithivas @mncp_brasil Formalized in 2004, the movement works to promote actions of integrated support for women living with HIV/Aids. The focus of their work is on access to information and the guarantee of human rights. Among strategies they employ in their work, the movement seeks to perform political lobbying with public agencies, in addition to holding meetings for exchanging information between groups, in order to improve the quality of life of the people in the collective.	Porto Alegre, RS	R$45.000,00

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
Movimento pela Vida de Pessoas Encarceradas do Ceará - MOVYPECE @_movipece_ The group was created for the purpose of promoting actions to restore the recognition and citizenship of women who are released from the prison system as well as the families of incarcerated people. The movement works by denouncing violations of human rights and offering legal support to combat retaliation and institutional violence inflicted on these women.	Maracanaú, CE	R$45.000,00
Mulheres da Terra e das Águas The group arose in 2023 after a meeting at the Acampamento Terra Livre , when women from three different territories decided to join forces to recuperate memories, exchange knowledge, and expand the resistance of native and traditional peoples. The movement brings together Mura women from Rondônia, Potiguara women in the Northeast region and those from the Andina culture who live in São Paulo. Among the projects they have developed, the group has proposed actions to battle the degradation of the Madeira River and educational and artistic activities against LGBT-phobia and racism.	Porto Velho, RO	R$45.000,00
Mulheres em Ação no Alemão @meaa.oficial The group began its activities in 2015 with the purpose of promoting actions to combat violence against women. The movement works with actions directed at feminine empowerment, seeking to fortify the women's autonomy and providing support to guarantee basic rights in cases of domestic violence and/or social vulnerability. Among its initiatives, the group has created the first space to offer support for women who are victims of violence in the Complexo do Alemão .	Rio de Janeiro, RJ	R$45.000,00
Mulheres Huni Kuin do Rio Humaitá @mulheres.hk.humaita The organization began its activities in 2020 with the purpose of supporting Huni Kuin women from a variety of territories. Among its objectives, the group carries out experiences to honor the sacred knowledge of feminine ancestors and organizes actions to fortify community organization and attain autonomy and the generation of income for women.	Tarauacá, AC	R$45.000,00

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
Núcleo de Mães de Vítimas da Violência do Estado The group was founded in 2009 to strengthen the movement of mothers fighting for justice after having lost children who were murdered in violent operations conducted by agents of the State. The organization operates by registering complaints of human rights violations and offering comfort to victims' families. The group also offers thematic audiovisual, artistic, and cultural workshops to facilitate the insertion of women into the labor market, in addition to developing activities to fortify the physical and psychological health of these women.	Rio de Janeiro, RJ	R$45.000,00
Núcleo de Trans Masculinidades @nucleodetransmasculinidades The group was founded in December of 2018 with the objective of publicizing the agendas of trans and transmasculine men in different sectors of society and also promoting socialization and integration between peers. The group seeks to promote actions that focus on the discussion of gender and sexuality, especially to give visibility to trans men.	Guarulhos, SP	R$45.000,00
Projeto Mãe da Mata @maedamataac The collective was created in 2019 in order to stimulate the use of ecologically sustainable products and also combat menstrual poverty. Among their activities, the group promotes multidisciplinary formations, actions on menstrual education, and uses social networks to increase awareness in society on the importance of sustainability in everyday life. One of the project's objectives is to promote entrepreneurship through local confection of ecological and sustainable items.	Rio Branco, AC	R$45.000,00
Quem Nunca Viu Venha Ver @quemnuncaviuvenhaver The collective is the most recent vestige of the movement of capoeira women in Maranhão, created in the 1990s. The group carries out open and collaborative activities, such as capoeira presentations, shows, workshops, and exchanges, seeking to promote inclusive environments for the development of the art.	São Luís, MA	R$45.000,00

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
Quilombo Quingoma @quingomaquilombo The Quilombo Quingoma has been offering shelter to descendants of slaves since 1569, and is located in an old plantation area of the Bahian Recôncavo. Its matriarchal leadership of Black women carries out political, cultural, religious, and educational activities with the strong presence of elders who contribute to the construction and perpetuation of the collective memory of the community. The quilombo also realizes traditional activities, such as samba gatherings and hikes to reaffirm the prestige of Black culture and combat racism.	Lauro de Freitas, BA	R$45.000,00
Rede ALAMP - Articulação de Lésbicas da Amazônia Paraense The network was created in 2021 from the need for a safe space to collective empowerment and articulation of communal policies among activists in lesbian groups, collectives, and organizations in the Amazônia region of Pará. One of the network's principal agendas is well-being, in addition to mobilization in the fight to guarantee rights, to combat discrimination, and to seek visibility for lesbians.	Belém, PA	R$45.000,00
Rede de Mulheres Negras do Nordeste @redemulheresnegrasnordeste The network began its activities in 2013 with the objective of developing mapping, mobilization, and articulated structuring toward institutional fortification, sustainability and political formation of the Black youths and women of the region. Among the areas of focus for its activities is political activism for combating racism, sexism, and lesbophobia, and the promotion of equality in every region of the Northeast.	Teresina, PI	R$45.000,00
Rede de Mulheres Quilombolas de Mocajuba The network was created with the objective of promoting the political fortification of a range of collectives of quilombola women and strengthening them in their fight for territory, against environmental racism, and in favor of specific public policies for traditional communities. The organization also supports initiatives that work in the intersections between ethnic-racial and gender identities.	Mocajuba, PA	R$45.000,00

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
Rede MILBi+ @redemilbi The network's activities began in 2018 with its objective being to construct safe spaces for dialogue among migrant women who identify as lesbians, bisexuals and pansexuals. Currently, the network also includes transgender and non-binary people, and supports actions that promote interculturality and intersectionality in questions of gender, sexuality, esthetics, diversity, migration, race, and ethnicity in Brazil.	São Paulo, SP	R$45.000,00
Rede Nacional de Lésbicas e Bissexuais Feministas Negras Candaces facebook.com/candacesbr The network was created in 2008 when Black lesbian women involved in feminist initiatives and groups decided to create a space for debating questions of gender and sexual orientation in a racialized way. Currently, it is composed of organizations from all over the country and carries out activities in the areas of health, occupying spaces of social control in partnership with other feminist organizations.	Itaparica, BA	R$45.000,00
Rede Nacional de Mulheres Negras no Combate à Violência @rede.nacionalmulheresnegras Created in 2008, the network is organized into 45 centers spread throughout the five regions of the country that denounce all forms of violence, oppression and violations of rights suffered by Black young girls and women. Among its methods of operation, the network mobilizes activities to increase awareness and confront institutional racism.	Piracicaba, SP	R$45.000,00
Rede Pelas Mulheres Indígenas @pelasmulheresindigenas The network was created for the purpose of guiding and supporting Indigenous women in the combat against violations of the human rights of women. One of its objectives is to support and create spaces in the Indigenous communities where women can speak and be listened to, and to elaborate strategies for combating gender violence in the villages.	Ilhéus, BA	R$45.000,00

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
Residência Artística Ocupação das Minas LGBTQIAP+ @ocupacao_das_minas The initiative arose in 2019 as a result of the artistic occupation of female graffiti artists which was carried out by activists from hip hop culture. The group's objectives include the effort to form a support network and to fortify women in their areas of operation. The residence also employs art as an instrument to denounce situations of embarrassment, exposure, and violence experienced by artists in a cultural context and for activism. The network also promotes listening to women and articulating actions to support them and show respect for their stories.	Diadema, SP	R$45.000,00
Sociedade Civil e Religiosa Ilê Omolu Oxum @ileomoluoxxum Ilê Omolu Oxum was created in 1968 and has always been a matriarchal entity. Subjects such as human rights, racism, domestic violence, prevention of IST and Aids, transphobia and lesbophobia are at the center of the debate. The sacred spaces of traditional African religions also function as locations for social transformation and resistance in the combat against racism and religious intolerance.	São João de Meriti, RJ	R$45.000,00
Tereza de Benguela Coletivo de Faxinas @coletivoterezadebenguela The collective Tereza de Benguela was founded in 2015 through articulation among women who work as day workers in domestic service. After registering a series of complaints against the exploitation of these workers, the women connected with each other through social networks and decided to develop activities that would increase the esteem of women who work as housecleaners in the informal market. The collective prioritizes the fight for worker's rights and public policies directed toward this category.	Belo Horizonte, MG	R$45.000,00
Txana Aibu Keneya Siriani The group brings together young women and children to restore the sacred songs and traditional teachings of the Indigenous community as learned from their elders. One of their objectives is to share the women's knowledge of sacred drawings, weaving, bead work, body painting, medicinal herbs, traditional cuisine, traditional songs, and prayers, performing the work of the restoration of culture and the preservation of memory.	Feijó, AC	R$45.000,00

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
ZarabatanalNFO - Ciberativistas Negres & LBT's Amazônidas @zarabatanainfo ZarabatanalNFO arose in 2020 as a communication center for the Amazônico LesBiTrans collective for the purpose of fighting disinformation and fake news about vaccination and the COVID-19 pandemic. In broad terms, the group's objective is to defend freedom of information and expression, training young Amazonian Black LBT's and non-binaries in digital technologies and cybersecurity culture. Their purpose is to combat all forms of racism, LGBT-phobia, violence, and violations of rights, through the dissemination of information.	Altamira, PA	R$45.000,00