

RESULT
GAGGA
2023

Result of the Selection GAGGA 2023

> Round 2: 21.09.2023

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
Coletivo Sapato Preto - Lésbicas Negras Amazonidas @sapatopretoamazonida Created in 2018, the collective emerged from an informal meeting of black women of the capital of Pará who felt the need for an intersectional dialogue in the region about race, gender and sexuality. The collective was the result of the need to meet and outline the experiences of lesbian and black women, from the city and from the countryside, and it acts to work on the implementation of public policies for this community.	Belém, PA	R$41.920,00
Departamento de Mulheres da Federação de Organizações Indígenas do Rio Negro - DMIRN FOIRN @foirn The organization is one of the five departments that make up the Federação das Organizações Indígenas do Rio Negro (FOIRN) and was created in 2002 at the I Encontro de Mulheres Indígenas, in São Gabriel da Cachoeira, to strengthen the associations of women artisans in the region. Currently, it works in favor of the sustainable development of 750 indigenous and women's communities and better living conditions for indigenous women of Rio Negro.	São Gabriel da Cachoeira, AM	R$41.920,00
Federação dos Povos Indígenas do Pará - FEPIPA @fepipa_oficial The Federation, founded in 2016, works in accordance with its objectives to enable sustainable development and improve the quality of life for indigenous peoples while respecting their differences. The organization's mission is to guarantee respect for socio-cultural diversity and ensure the convergence of public policies based on a vision for diversity in indigenous communities, as needed and in accordance with the interest of collectivity.	Belém, PA	R$41.920,00

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
Movimento Interestadual de Quebradeiras de Coco Babaçu - MIQCB @miqcb_ The movement was born in 1991, with the growth in awareness that the breaking of babaçu coconuts, an activity transmitted through generations of women, was not given recognition as fundamental to life in the countryside and small rural cities. The organizations of women associated with the processing of coconut in Maranhão, Pará, Tocantins, and Piauí, acted together to stimulate development with regard to ancestral knowledge of women and maintaining the rainforest, in opposition to agribusiness and landownership.	São Luís, MA	R$ 41.920,00

Result of the Selection GAGGA 2023

> Round 1: 10.07.2023

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
AMARN - Associação de Mulheres Indígenas do Alto Rio Negro @numiakura The mission of the association, which has been active since 1987, is to fight for socio-cultural and labor rights of Indigenous women in Alto Rio Negro. The organization petitions relevant authorities and agencies for medical, maternal, and legal assistance for women, encourages their professional development, and promotes actions to foster leadership and financial independence.	Manaus, AM	47.620,00
Caranguejo Tabaiares @caranguejoresiste Founded in 2018, the collective's mission is to support the fight for the rights of the population living in the fishing community of Caranguejo Tabaiares. The group works to defend their territory through the preservation of local memory and culture. It also carries out activities to ensure the rights to habitation, security, well-being, and health in the context of the struggle against racism.	Recife, PE	47.620,00
Coletivo Margarida Alves @coletivomargaridaalves Created in 2012, the collective offers affordable feminist and antiracist legal counseling to a diverse set of social groups. The objective is to provide advocacy with the legal system, as well as legislative and public administration areas, and to develop activities to promote political awareness, education about human rights, and the democratization of access to the courts.	Belo Horizonte, MG	47.620,00

NAME OF THE GROUP/ORGANIZATION	CITY AND STATE	FUNDING
Kuiã Atã - Grupo de Mulheres Indígenas Tupinambá do Acuípe de Baixo @kuiaata The group was created in 2019 to guarantee equality in rights and promote leadership among Tupinambá Indigenous women. Its objectives include guaranteeing cultural and ethnic ancestry and fighting for the maintenance of territory, climate and gender justice, and environmental preservation.	Ilhéus, BA	47.620,00
Kuñangue Aty Guasu - A Grande Assembleia das Mulheres Kaiowá e Guarani @kunangueatyguasu The assembly was founded in 2006 with the aim of contributing to the empowerment of the Kaiowá and Guarani women who live in the southern cone of Mato Grosso do Sul. In addition to defending territory, the group develops activities to guarantee citizenship, social rights, and public security for the communities. It also promotes actions to combat domestic violence and religious racism in the villages.	Dourados, MS	47.620,00
Lesbitrans @lesbitrans_amazonia The collective was created in 2018 to serve LGBTQIA+ women in the river communities and the forests, with a focus on expanding discussions about land and territory rights and consolidating LGBTI centers and leadership. Its activities include fighting LGBTI-phobia and gender violence and engaging in the struggle for socio-environmental justice.	Altamira, PA	47.620,00
Makira Eta - Rede de Mulheres Indígenas do Estado do Amazonas @makiraeta The association began its activities in 2017 to promote leadership among Indigenous women through sustainable socio-economic development. The network engages in activities involving the training and professionalization of Indigenous women, allowing for the generation of income through the production and commercialization of craftwork and natural products.	Manaus, AM	47.620,00

